Re: Pilot Project in NO DISTURBANCE AREAS

I HAVE BIG CONCERNS I WOULD LIKE TO HAVE ON RECORD, please. [PART #2]

"...We continue to be victimized by the unscrupulous (and common) practice of contractors sneaking in under the radar, coming in over night and clear cutting small plots of undeveloped lots (or infill) sandwiched between homes in old neighborhoods often without a proper grading permit (skipping part or all of the permitting process) and then claiming ignorance. I was fighting that back when we were Unincorporated Redmond - King County and I (perhaps naively) hoped we had greater protection and control now that we were a city with a local government of concerned and sensitive leaders. It appears we have inherited and embraced, largely unchanged, a systemically dysfunctional system since revenue generated from permit expenses and tax on fallen timber make up a portion of the City's paychecks! This is a seemingly direct conflict of interest and disingenuous incentive for environmental protection measures. (see Clear Cutting attachment)..."

Thank you again for your consideration and the opportunity to speak freely.

Nicky Beadle,

EXHIBIT NO. CC74.
